—William Rink went to Chicago this morning.

—James R. Casey has returned from a visit at Tonica.

—F. E. Frederick, of Joliet, is in our city on business.

—Dr. C. C. Edson has been quite ill for the past three weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keeler are home from a visit at Hitt, Ill.

—C. A. Todd has returned home from a business trip to Chicago.

—Read Smith & Crabtree's insurance advertisement elsewhere.

—John Coffman and A. S. Kemp, of Pine Creek, are with us today.

—Miss Anna Alexander has gone to Rockford to visit over Sunday.

—Hon. W. I. Guffin is up from Paw paw shaking hands with friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. V. E. Steel now board with Mrs. Walter Little at Dement Place.

—Never before did there appear to be such an abundance of song birds as this spring.

—Mrs. Lydia Parks has returned from Iowa, where she was called by the death of her father.

—Freeport is counting on an electric street railway in full operation by the Fourth of July.

—M. D. Hathaway, of Rochelle, is here on court business. He spent the winter in California and came east last week.

—A score or more of young people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Grove at Highland Park last night and had a jolly time.

—Town Clerk Clifton Hatch has an office desk in the apartments occupied by City Attorney H. R Bartlett, and can be found there when wanted.

—Every one remembers Backus and Null as the Judge and Policeman in "The Irish Justice." The boys give a dance at Rosbrook's Hall tomorrow night.

—Mrs. Fanny Dixon and Mrs. Goodwin have returned from their visit in Polo and Palmyra and will remain in Dixon until some time next week.

—We hope in a few days to be able to chronicle another marrying episode. The clerks and carriers at the postoffice have a Strong suspicion that such an event is being planned.

—The plans for the flat to be built by George Shields on Third street are being examined by contractors. They call for an elegant building that will be an ornament to our city.

—Mrs. Johnson, the milliner, has just returned from Chicago, where she has been selecting the latest styles in millinery. She advertises elsewhere for apprentices to learn her trade.

—A dance will be given tomorrow evening in Rosbrook's hall, by the members of the Dixon Minstrels who took part in the afterpiece, "The Irish Justice." The music will be furnished by the Italian orchestra of five pieces.

—The Brown Company will present the beautiful emotional drama of "East Lynne" this evening. Tonight is special ladies' night, and they will undoubtedly have a crowded house. An elegant gold hunting case lady's watch will be given away this evening to the lady holding the lucky number.

—Our dispatches this evening regarding the trouble at Omaha with the Kelly branch of the Coxey army are somewhat alarming Correspondents at Washington also seem to take a very serious view of what was at first considered the "Industrial Army farce." A private note from Mr. Cheney, which we take the liberty to print, is an interesting description of Kelly's army.

—We have just received intelligence of the death of Paul L. Girton, who died last Sunday on his farm near Carthage Mo. Mr. Girton and family were for a number of years residents of Lee county, having settled on a farm in Nachusa township in 1850, where they resided until they removed to their present home in 1876 Mr. Girton was a brother of Mrs. John Evans of Ashton and a brother-in law to Dr. H. E. Garrison of Dixon; and is still well remembered by a large circle of friends in this vicinity.

Serious Time in a Barber Shop.

There came near being a tragedy in our city last night. A party of young women and men were making merry in one of our barber shops, after working hours, when one of the number made ready to curl her hair, using an alcohol lamp which she set on her lap to heat the curling iron with. In some manner the lamp was overturned, the fluid flowing down the front of her dress and igniting. Her dress was soon destroyed and her companions had a deperate struggle to save the rest of her clothing, and her life, had not the blaze been quickly smothered.

Come and Get One.

In preparing to move THE TELEGRAPH office into our new building, we this morning came across between three and four hundred copies of a pamphlet printed in in 1880, entitled "History of Dixon and Lee County." It contains a chronological record of early occurrences and many reminescences of especial interest to the families of early settlers; a sketch of our first school, by the late Dr. Oliver Everett; a biography of Father Dixon, the founder of this city; a list of most of the early settlers of Dixon and Palmyra and a complete roster of the soldiers who left Dixon for the war of the rebellion. It also contains a small map of Lee county, and a number of illustrations. The pamphlets, however, though valuable for the matter they contain, are poorly printed, on very cheap paper, and are mostly badly soiled and stained. If any of the subscribers of THE TELEGRAPH desire a copy of the pamphlet, if they will call they are welcome to one so long as the supply holds out.

The Dixon Alumni.

The executive committee of the Dixon High School Alumni Association met last evening at the residence of Mrs. S. S. Dodge on Galena avenue. The object of the meeting was to make arrangements for the annual reunion and banquet of the Association to be held in June next, to follow the graduating exercises of the Dixon High School. It will be the aim and purpose of the executive committee to make this the most interesting meeting of the Association ever held; and to this end we would urge a very full attendance of all the graduates of the school. Let those who still reside in this vicinity not only attend the reunion, but see that all who have settled elsewhere, whose address they can secure, have urgent invitations to be present. The sentiment which surrounds the memory of our school days is a worthy one, and should be cherished, and these annual reunions of those once closely associated, now widely scattered, afford golden opportunities for the renewal of friendships that the busy practicalities of life have sadly interfered with. Let every member of the association take a lively interest in the approaching reunion and banquet, the date of which will be announced later.

School Election.

There is to be an election tomorrow in the South Side school district for three members of the Board of Education whose terms expire; F. A. Truman, J. W. Stephens and Elias Bovey. We would suggest that these members of the present board be re-elected, as they have made efficient officers and understand the wants generally of the educational interests of that portion of the city. We have heard no complaint against their administration of affairs and we know of no reason why they should not be retained, but much could be said in favor of continuing the old board. The district was very fortunate in securing such an accomplished educator as Professor Williamson to take charge of the South Side schools, and the simple fact that nothing but praise is spoken of his work shows that he is the right man in the right place. He is not only an able teacher but an educated gentleman whom we are pleased to have with us as a citizen. In no position could his accomplishments be more useful than in moulding the minds and manners, as well as in educating our children. There are no officers more important than these to be elected tomorrow, and therefore the people should attend the election.

What we have said of the South Side will apply equally to the North Side school, which also holds its election for directors tomorrow. The retiring members of the board are J. F. Sanford, president, and O. J. Downing and A. H. Filson. These men have served well, and if they will consent to continue on the board, the district could scarcely do better than to elect them. If the South Side has been fortunate in securing the services of its present principal, the North Side has been no less so in retaining in the same capacity the services of Prof. E. C. Smith, the veteran educator of Northern Illinois, whom Father Time has seemed to crown with perennial vigor; adding each year to his rich fund of experience and making his services yearly more and more valuable. As a molder of thought and character among the young, Mr Smith has attained a high place.

—A poor blind horse, apparently unowned and uncared for, is wandering about the river road just west of the Condensed Milk Factory. It is apparently nearly starved and famished with thirst and unable to procure for itself water. It would be an act of humanity if some one would kindly put an end to its life.

—Sunday, April 22nd, is to be observed by the Methodist churches in the Dixon District as a jubilee day. There have been over 1600 conversions during the past winter. The special services in the Methodist church in Dixon will be as follows: At 10:30 a. m. Rev. H. Olin Cady, a returned missionary from China, will deliver the address. Mr. Cady is a brother of Dr. Cady, former pastor of the Methodist church in Dixon. He preached his last sermon before sailing for China about ten years ago, in the old Methodist church in this city. The special jubilee services will be held in the evening, beginning with appropriate meetings in the leagues and classes. At 7:30 p. m. preaching by the pastor, Rev. O. H. Cessna, followed by a praise and consecration service.

HILL WILL CONFER.

Prospect of an End to the Great Northern Strike.

DEBS' MEN PROMISED A HEARING.

With the Assurance That They Could Have Had That at Any Time They Desired—Brotherhood Chiefs Go Home—A North Dakota Statesman After Judge Sanborn's Scalp—Rumblings of the Mine Trouble That Will Break Out Tomorrow Everywhere Coal Is Dug.

ST. PAUL, April 20.—President Hill received a joint communication from the American Railway Union and the grievance committees of the employes on strike, requesting a conference with the officers of the union and the employes' committee on the adjustment and immediate settlement of all differences between the company and its employes on an equitable basis. President Hill's answer was received in less than thirty minutes, stating that "the company is always ready to receive and hear its employes, or their representatives, on all matters affecting their relations with the company." Although neither in its address nor in its substance did the answer mention or seem to recognize the American Railway Union the officers of the union announced themselves as in every respect satisfied with it, and promptly sent out notices to the men along the line to come to the conference.

Something Well Known to the Men.

When asked whether the men would now return to work President Debs, of the union, said the officers had no authority to order the men to go out or to go to work, that being decided by the men themselves. Vice President Clough, of the Great Northern, in an interview said: "The company has stated time and time again that it is always ready to hear its employes who have grievances. The men know this. The Great Northern has never refused to hear an employe or a committee of employes." Regarding the matter of allowing the employes to bring the union or brotherhood leaders into the conference, Colonel Clough explained that the company was willing for them to bring in lawyers, or any other persons they might see fit.

The Injunction Gets in Its Work.

While the strikers in the Great Northern system are jubilant over the receipt from President Hill of a note repeating his well known expression of being always ready to hear his employes' grievances, the restraining order issued by Judge Sanborn seems to have been very effective. At nearly all points where any attempt was made trains moved without active opposition by the strikers. The presence of United States deputies with copies of the restraining order generally served to quiet the men. Trains were moved at Fargo and Grand Forks, North Dakota, and at Barnesville, Breckinridge and Crookston, Minn.

Hundreds of applications from competent railroad men all over the United States have been received at the Great Northern offices. None of these have been accepted yet, as the company expects the strike to be short lived. All of the brotherhood leaders have left for their homes.

POINTS FROM ALONG THE LINE.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., April 20.—An attempt was made here to make up a train for the east, but the strikers placed cars blocking the track and the attempt was absolutely fruitless. The engine was returned to the roundhouse amid the cheers of a large crowd,

Mayor Bruckart, at the commencement of the strike at the urgent request of the strikers, appointed twelve special policefrom the ranks of the strikers to protect the company's interests against the depredations of tramps and others who might destroy company property. When No. 1 reached here yesterday some of these policemen were caught pulling pins from the mail train. Mayor Bruckart consequently revoked the commissions of the specials and appointed citizens in their places to guard the company property.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., April 20.—The strikers were to have had a procession, but abandoned the idea at the last minute. President J. J. Hill was hung in effigy in West Great Falls. Debs' telegram from St. Paul saying that President Hill requests the leaders of the strike to come to St. Paul for a conference was received. The men say they are not likely to go, but will wire terms instead.

FARGO, N. D., April 20.—The train from St. Paul, under convoy of deputy United States marshals, arrived here at noon and was escorted north by eleven deputy marshals. At Hillsboro some of the marshals boarded the train abandoned there, Monday night and brought it down.

JOHNSON OF DAKOTA TALKS.

He Is Going to Try to Have Judge Sanborn Impeached.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Representative Johnson, of North Dakota, whose state is so greatly affected by the strike on the Great Northern railroad, was at the postoffice department and department of justice in the interests of his constituents. He says the postmaster general will not accede to the request of the railroad company, but will insist that the mail cars be run whether passenger and other cars are run or not. Johnson was at the department of justice to see if the inconvenience that would be caused the people by Judge Sanborn's order could not be avoided.

"I have thrown myself wholly on the side of the strikers," said Johnson. "I am against the railroad and believe the strikers are right. I have prepared a resolution of impeachment against Judge Sanborn, and will introduce it as soon as I can obtain a copy of his order, so that I will know officially what it was. Furthermore I do not believe that the railroad company can hold the state or municipalities responsible if the people burn and destroy the property of the railroad.

"I know from my experience as district attorney that the company has educated the people for a long series of years in lawlessness. The company has failed to obey the laws and has defied them. I am sure that the same rules that obtained in Pennsylvania a few years ago would not follow in my state; rather the municipalities could hold the company responsible if property is destroyed, and also for the damage done to business for failure to run trains."

Wabash Wage Schedule Arranged.

ST. LOUIS, April 20.—After mutual concessions had been made on both sides an amicable understanding was finally arrived at regarding the new schedule of wages to be paid Wabash engineers and firemen, taking effect May 1. The conference adjourned and the men comprising the committee left for their respective homes. General Manager Hayes, of the Wabash, also left the city and will not return until Saturday when, it is expected, the committees representing the conductors and brakemen of the three divisions will be here to confer with him about the proposed changes in their wages.

THE COMING MINERS' STRIKE.

Gloomy Outlook in the Pennsylvania Region—Situation in Illinois.

DUBOIS, April 20.—The strike to be inaugurated next Saturday will be general and complete in the mines of this region. And the outlook is worse than gloomy. The Punxsutawney miners have come out en masse and before next Saturday the whole region will be idle. The men who have already struck at Reynoldsville, Dubois and Punxsutawney are 2,500 strong, and there are thousands yet to come out. The miners at Reynoldsville, employed by the Bell, Lewis & Yates company, have come out and will stand with the rest of the organized miners when the big strike is inaugurated next Saturday.

At Johnstown the strike among the bituminous coal miners will be started today when 300 men will come out at Hastings. On Saturday it is expected that most of the men in this district will strike and that 6,500 miners will be out in the Sixth bituminous district. The district covers seventy-eight mines, mostly north of Cambria county and along the Pennsylvania railway.

Will Quit Work Saturday Noon.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., April 20.—At a largely-attended mass meeting of miners of the Springfield sub-district, held in this city and representing almost all the mines in the district, J. A. Crawford, of Brandt, Fulton county, state president of the Miners' union, and the member of the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, made an address advocating the union of miners. He said the railroad companies, street railways and manufacturers would suffer more than any one else. He did not think the mine operators were making any money, and thought the price would be raised by a general strike. He said this would be the first time a general strike was had in this country. The delegates decided by a unanimous vote to go on a strike Saturday noon. Great enthusiasm was manifested. A delegate state convention of miners is to be held here Tuesday, April 24.

BRAIDWOOD, Ills., April 20.—At a mass meeting of miners of the Braidwood field, held here, it was decided to suspend work April 21. Five thousand miners in eight towns were represented at the meeting.

MACON, Mo., April 20.—Eight hundred miners at Bevier have decided to obey the order of the United Mine Workers and work will be suspended Saturday noon.

No Street Car Strike at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, April 20.—The Milwaukee Street Railway company has agreed to pay the old scale, and there will be no strike.

HAPPENS THE INEVITABLE.

Coal Oil Poured on a Fire and the Usual Tragedy Results.

MENOMINEE, Mich., April 20.—A horrible accident occurred at Marinette by which Mrs. Mary Cleary, a widow, and Mrs. William Boyle, her sister, were fatally burned. One of the women poured kerosene oil from a glass vessel into the fire. An explosion followed and she was immediately enveloped in burning oil. She ran to the bedroom occupied by her sister and in the attempt to save her both were burned so they died within two hours after the accident occurred. The house also caught on fire and was barely saved from destruction. The women were so badly burned that the flesh fell from their bodies.

Illinois State Board of Charities.

SPRINGFIELD, April 20.—At the regular meeting of the state board of charities the time was mainly occupied with a preparation of a list of visitors to county jails and alms houses. The list will contain the nomes of three persons from each county in the state, who will serve without pay. The financial record for the last quarter was presented. It shows the total number of inmates in the eleven charitable institution of thestate to have been 9,110. The total cost for mantenance for the quarter was $298,462.53. The cost to the state was $273,693.3.. The average gross cost per capita for maintenance was $30.66.

More Mob Law in Ohio.

TOLEDO, April 20.—A special from Deshler, O., says: A mob of infuriated men, women, and children nearly killed Florence Stevenson, who had been living with George Keim, a prominent business man. Keim's wife led the mob, and the Stevenson woman was held under the spout of a railway water tank until she was nearly drowned. She was then put on a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton train and was sent out of town. Keim barely escaped hanging, and was stoned out of town.

Charley Ross' Brother Married.

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—It is now nearly twenty years since Charley Ross was stolen from his home in Germantown. Interest in the abduction was revived when Walter Ross, the brother of Charley, married Miss Julia Peabody Chandler. Walter was taken by the abductors, but they left him at the foot of Shackamaxon street. He is now 27 years of age.

Colored Brute in Jail.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 20.—George Martin, a colored tramp from Chicago, was arrested here for criminally assaulting Mrs. Kate Deaton of Donnellsville. Martin entered her house and asked for something to eat and when she gave it to him he assaulted her. Her screams attracted the attention of her son, who followed the rascal to town and caused his arrest.

Senator Vance's Successor.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 20.—Hon. J. T. Jarvis has been appointed and has accepted the United States senatorship to succeed the late Senator Vance.

Illness of Senator Stockbridge.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Senator Stockbridge, of Michigan, is confined to his bed at the home of a relative here recovering from a week's severe illness resembling gastritis.

Gladstone Suffers a Chill.

LONDON, April 20.—Mrs. Gladstone, replying to inquiries concerning the health of her husband, says that he suffered from a chill, but has now nearly recovered.

Lawler Wants To Be Sheriff.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Frank Lawler has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Cook county.

DOCKING SALARIES.

GROSVENOR PROPOSES A WAY OUT.

He Introduces a Bill to Repeal the Revived Law—Sergeant-at-Arms Snow Not Pleased with the Revival, But the Speaker Puts It in Force—Some of the Objections—Base Ball Cranks in the House Break a Quorum.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Representative Grosvenor has introduced a bill to repeal the old law directing the sergeant-at-arms to "dock" the salaries of absent members. Grosvenor says that the law never can be enforced, and it is better to repeal it than violate it. Grosvenor is not the only one who believes this law is a nuisance. Speaker Crisp has authorized Sergeant-at-Arms Snow to make public the new form of certificate by which the old law—in disuse for thirty years—is revived and the pay of members is "docked" for absenteeism. The member certifies to the number of days he was absent during the month and the speaker certifies to the amount due him.

Must Result in Confusion and Friction.

Snow said concerning the new system: "I feel that it must result in much confusion and friction; yet, as the law exists and the house wants me to execute it, I will do so. There will be many difficulties in keeping the accounts, and the members will necessarily be subjected to much inconvenience. At present members draw cash from the cashier, or else make drafts at their banks on the balances with us. Now if a member in New York draws on us through a local bank the draft will be presented to us on the fourth of the month—which is pay day for the preceding month. But at that time we will not have the member's signed certificate showing the amount due him. The certificates cannot be made until the last moment, as the deduction for absenteeism may occur on the last day.

Will Be Trouble with the Banks.

"Then it is not within the bounds of possibility for 356 members of congress to make out their certificates at the moment they are wanted. After that they must go to the speaker for approval. As a result it will be difficult and perhaps impossible to keep the run of the balances. I cannot see how we can keep drafts and checks made by members through banks from going to protest. It will be no satisfactory thing to have a dozen or more drafts at a time going to protest with the attendant inconvenience and injury to the bank credit of members. Still if the house wants this system resumed I will execute it to the best of my ability. The first deductions will be on the 4th of next month."

Ballentine Feels Badly, Too.

Cashier Ballentine anticipates a demoralization of his balances, and is at a loss to know how they can be kept so that members can be paid—personally or by their draft—with any assurance that they are not being overpaid. It sweeps away every vestige of the favors and ease of permits with which the office has heretofore tried to facilitate money dealings with members.

FADED AWAY TO THE BALL GAME.

Representatives Break a Quorum to See the League Opening.

The opening of the base ball season opened a question in the house regarding this old "docking" rule. About 4 p. m. yesterday nearly half the members suddenly faded away from the precincts of the chamber to reappear breathless with anticipation and excitement on the grand stand of the base ball park, there to watch the Washington and Philadelphia base ball experts thump and chase the pigskin. Shortly a vote on an amendment disclosed the house without a quorum, and the question is will this absence result in a "docking" of the salaries of the absentees.

It was really of small consequence whether the members were present or absent, so far as business progress was concerned; for the whole day was devoted to threshing old Hawaiian straw on an amendment to abolish the minister to Hawaii, which was defeated in committee of the whole without a division. During the debate Stevens was eulogized and Willis made fun of by the Republicans, while, when Springer referred to Secretary Gresham as a "great statesman," Grosvenor wanted a bill of particulars on that point, which Springer proceeded to give for the benefit of the Ohio statesman.

He sketched Gresham's career from his services in the army, his successive appointment as "postmaster general, circuit judge, until at the Republican national convention of 1888 he was nominated and presented by the Republicans of Illinois as their candidate for president." This certificate of his brilliant statesmanlike qualities Springer thought ought to be as good an endorsement as the Republicans on the other side could ask. To their minds he ceased to be a great statesman when he abandoned the Republican party.

"How do you know he abandoned the Republican party?" asked Morgan of Missouri.

"Oh," replid Springer amid laughter, "I know that certain men on this side suspect Judge Gresham, but I for one rejoiced in his selection as secretary of state."

Gold in the Treasury Decreasing.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The net gold in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $103,673,528. Information received at the treasury indicates that there will be another heavy payment of gold next Saturday, which possibly may reach last week's shipment of $4,200,000. It is expected, however, that not more than half of the amount will be taken from the sub-treasuries, the banks furnishing the rest. Nevertheless the gold supply in the treasury is decreasing week by week until it has reached a point where the $100,000,000 reserve is liable any day to be again encroached upon.

SENATORS WORRIED OVER COXEY.

Presence in the City of the "Armies" Regarded with Anxiety.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Inquiry concerning the proceeding of the executive session of the senate develops the fact that senators take a more serious view of the prospective gathering of Coxeyites and others here than the first report would seem to indicate. The opinion is expressed by senators who participated in the executive proceedings that in view of the emergency that is likely to arise President Cleveland would be justified in issuing a proclamation warning the men now on their way to the city in connection with Coxey's movement that the authorities will be prepared to require the strictest observance of order.

The opinion is also freely expressed in the senate and was advanced in executive session that congress cannot afford and should not do anything looking to the sustenance of the Coxey army while here. It is expected that if a large body of men should assemble, as it is now regarded as probable, they will soon find themselves more anxious to secure food to sustain life than money to build roads, and will be clamorous for an appropriation to that end.

Senate and House in Brief.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Perkins occupied nearly the whole senate session with a speech against the Wilson bill. The conference report on the urgent deficiency bill was adopted. Peffer's resolutions for a committee to hear the Coxey "armies" was advocated by Peffer and Allen and the balance of the session was devoted to eulogies of the late Representative Enochs, of Ohio.

The house in committee of the whole defeated an amendment to the diplomatic bill abolishing the ministry to Hawaii, and lost a quorum on an amendment to strike out the increase of the salary of the secretary to the Mexican legation. The urgent deficiency conference report was adopted. A resolution was adopted instructing the secretary of the interior to inform the house what provision the Pacific railway corporations have made to pay their debts.

Threw 'Em Into Consternation.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The South Carolina delegation in congress was thrown into consternation on the receipt of telegrams stating that the supreme court of the state had declared the dispensary liquor law unconstitutional. The dispensary law has been such a supreme issue in South Carolina, accentuating party lines, that the congressmen from that state regarded the decision as profoundly important. But their opinion of the result depended on how they stood as to Tillman. Those opposed to him thought the decision just the thing and those who favored him concluded that the fight was not ended yet.

Brazilian Rebellion Officially Ended.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Secretary Gresham has received a brief cablegram from Minister Thompson, at Rio, confirming the report of the sinking of the Aquidiban by a government torpedo boat, the surrender of Mello and 1,300 men with his ships to the Argentine government at Buenos Ayres, and announcing that the rebellion is ended.

Appointed to West Point.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Cadet appointments to the military academy: L. W. Walter, Aurora, Ind.; J. W. Johnson, Sterling, Ills.; F. H. Dunlop, Paris, Tenn.

LEAGUE BASE BALL SEASON OPENS.

Music by the Band Ushers in the Contest for the Pennant.

CHICAGO, April 20.—With the boom of the big drum and the blare of the brass horn the base ball season of 1894 was opened. The first games were to have been played at Cincinnati, Louisville, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis and Boston, but the clerk of the weather frowned on the scheme at two places—Cincinnati and Louisville—and Chicago cranks are still on the anxious seat as to how the "colts" will acquit themselves when they meet some expert players.

The scores made were as follows: At Boston—Brooklyn 2, Boston 13; at Washington—Philadelphia 2, Washington 4; at Baltimore—New York 3, Baltimore 8; at St. Louis—Pittsburg 3, St. Louis 11.

At each place there was a big crowd and great enthusiasm.

Mrs. Foy's Lost Brother.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Following a Times sensation intimating that Joseph McLaughlin, the brother of Mrs. Foy, the witness in the Coughlin trial, had been "removed" by Cronin's enemies while en route to this city to testify against Coughlin, The Journal says that McLaughlin arrived here in the guise of a Roman Catholic priest, beat his board bill for a few weeks, and has been seen several times since the trial, at which for some unknown reason he did not testify, although in the city.

Chicago B. and L. Association Insolvent.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., April 20.—Auditor of Public Accounts Gore has reported the North and South Building and Loan association, of Chicago as insolvent, and the attorney general will be directed to proceed against it to wind up its affairs, if the assets are not made good in sixty days. The auditor states that lavish expenditures, unlimited salaries, large commissions and other items of a nature derogatory to the association's welfare were the causes of the failure.

No Law for a Vote on License.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., April 20.—Attorney General Moloney has rendered an opinion that there is no law in the Illinois statutes authorizing the authorities of cities and towns to submit the question of license; that it is done presumably to feel the public pulse in the matter, but if the voters vote for or against license it has no binding force in law upon the authorities, and they may grant or refuse license according to their own views.

Evicted Tenants in Ireland.

LONDON, April 20.—John Morley introduced in the house of commons the evicted tenants' bill, designed to put back on their original holdings the tenants who had been evicted because they joined in refusing to pay their rent under the Parnell "plan of campaign." It provides for arbitration of the whole matter. Tim Harrington said it was a useless bill, and Dillon approved it. The bill passed its first reading.

Prominent Citizen in Bad Business.

CLEVELAND, O., April 20.—R. B. Wasson, ex-county treasurer and a prominent citizen of Wayne county, has been arrested by United States authorities charged with sending obscene circulars through the mails. It is claimed that Wasson has for some time past made a practice of publishing and mailing obscene literature.

The Whisky Trust Meeting.

PEORIA, Ills., April 20.—The principal feature of the meeting of the whisky trust was the conference with the western distributors, who thought the eastern distributors were getting favors not given to them. The matter was adjusted satisfactorily to all parties.

Suicide of a Wealty Butcher.

NEW YORK, April 20.—George M. Hoffman, a wealthy butcher aged 59 years, shot and killed himself in his residence. Grief over the recent death of his wife prompted the act.

KELLY'S BAD LUCK.

Little Progress of the Army Through Illinois.

ONLY TEN MILES FROMT HE BLUFFS.

Without Shelter, in the Rain, and in a Pitiable Plight—Omaha Labor Men Talk of Using Force to Help Capture a Train, and Abuse Gov. Jackson—The "General" Threatens to Go Back—Coxey's Vanguard.

OMAHA, April 20.—Kelly's "army" was encamped last night at Weston, a station on the Rock Island railway ten miles east, to which place it had marched in miserably wet weather and on discouragingly muddy roads. Reports from the camp stated that the men scattered throughout the county seeking shelter among the farmers, and none had been turned away. The night was a fearful one and the members of the army who did not find shelter were chilled through.

Under the auspices of the Knights of Labor a largely attended mass meeting of workingmen was held last evening at Knights of Kabor hall to discuss means of helping Kelly's army. J. B. Shoup, of the Central Labor union, presided. As the crowd waited for the Knights of Labor assembly, which was in session, to adjourn, a passing hackman was asked to go over to Coucil Bluffs and bring over Governor Jackson. He replied that he would not haul such a man at any price.

The Meeting Very Indignant.

The crowd yelled its applause and then entered the hall, where a number of speeches were made by local labor leaders. Much indignation was expressed against Governor Jackson, Judge Hubbard and Sheriff Hazen for the treatment of Kelly's army at their hands. It soon developed that the men were willing to go to extremes if necessary to save Kelly's army from further outrages and when it was suggested that Omaha workingmen go en masse to Kelly's camp to aid in capturing a train or resisting force there were a number of cries "Let's go tonight." Some said: "What if the railway companies tear up their tracks?" The reply was: "What's the matter with our tearing up the tracks for them?"

Will Give the Army a Lift.

The meeting then named a committee of prominent citizens to go to the Bluffs in the morning to plead with the railroads to give Kelly a train. It was also understood that Omaha workingmen should march to the Bluffs to give the army whatever physical assistance it might need in case it had not left by that time. The signal for the meeting was to be the blowing of the whistle at the Union Pacific shops. It is expected that several thousand will go. The Iowa militia has been ordered home, and all the companies have gone.

Threatens to Go Back to the Bluffs.

Kelly says that if he does not secure a train by noon today he will march his army back to Council Bluffs. General Manager St. John, of the Rock island, arrived in the city last night, and after learning the condition of Kelly's men advised President Cable by telegraph to furnish a train to take the men to Chicago. President Cable replied that he would not decide whether to furnish a train until this morning. He expresses warm sympathy for the men, and recognizes the fact that if violence is done railroad property will be the first to suffer.

"UNKNOWN" LAUGHS AT COXEY.

He Again Scoops the Sympathetic Dollar and Wrath Reigneth.

WILLIAMSPORT, Md., April 20.—Coxey's army is camped in the city. There is but one tent, and the men sought shelter from the storm under wagons as best they could. Later the rain ceased, and Browne and Coxey headed a procession of the army through the streets, returning in about an hour to a supper of boiled pork and hard tack, after which there was a large public meeting addressed by the leaders. Coxey talked on his non-interest-bearing bond bill and held the attention of the crowd.

The army is on time to the day so far, and with ample time before it in which to cover the remaining seventy miles by pike to Washington. Cailds, Smith and the "Veiled lady" played another trick on the commonweal at Hagerstown, speaking twice without molestation and leaving Coxey and Browne in a rage at the other end of the six miles of telephone wire when they found they could not stop them.

Got Into Trouble at the Start.

BUTTE, Mont., April 20.—The Butte contingent of the Coxey army, fully 500 strong, has started on its march to Washington. A mile east of the city it captured an eastbound Northern Pacific freight train, consisting of five cars and a caboose. The engineer had orders to run the train back to the yards in case the army attempted to capture it and did so, and when it reached here the authorities took it from the army. Negotiations for a train are now going on.

A Railway Demands Protection.

DENVER, April 20. — Superintendent Deuel, on behalf of the Union Pacific receivers, has made a demand upon Governor Waite for protection of the company's trains and property against the industrials who are trying to secure transportation. The governor replied that such an appeal "should come from the authorities of the county or city in which the outrage occurred and then only after the municipal authorities declare themselves unable to preserve order."

Coxeyites Appeal to Gov. Waite.

DENVER, April 20.—Grayson and his Colorado contingent remained at Barr, Colo., eighteen miles from here, all night. Burlington officials ordered all passenger and freight trains to pass Barr at a high rate of speed, which was done. The men were exposed to the severe weather, and many are sick. Deserters have reduced the number to about 100. The men have written to Governor Waite asking him to provide three box cars for transportation to Omaha.

Frye's Troops at Casey.

CASEY, Ills., April 20.—General Frye's industrial army, numbering 188 men, has reached this city. The advance guard came in early and secured money and provisions. They are in camp within the city limits and all seemingly are in the best of spirits.

Blind Tigers Open Their Eyes.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 20.—Within an hour after the supreme court's decision against the dispensary law was known here 200 "blind tigers" found their sight and signs were hung out inviting anybody to "come in and have one with the house."

AT ANTWERP'S FAIR.

AMERICA WELL REPRESENTED IN THE BELGIAN EXPOSITION.

It Will Be Pre-eminently a Business Exhibition and Offers Great Inducements to Our Merchants and Manufacturers—Antwerp's Advantages as a Market.

Belgium's international exposition, which opens at Antwerp on May 5, will be more important, interesting and attractive to Americans than any other of the numerous European exhibitions of this year, though we shall probably be adequately represented at all of them in the matter of exhibits as well as by the number of our people in attendance. Antwerp's exhibition will be by far the largest of the lot and is expected to surpass the famous Paris exposition and all others of recent years, excepting only that of last year at Chicago. It will be pre-eminently a business fair, and will probably afford more profitable opportunities to our merchants and manufacturers than were offered even at the Columbian exposition.

The advantages of Antwerp as a great exchange market for American products can hardly be overestimated. It is the great commercial emporium for all northwestern Europe, and as its neutrality is guaranteed by the powers the port is safe from blockade in case of war, a fact which gives it an advantage over any port in France or Germany as a place for the establishment of branches of foreign mercantile houses. The foreign trade of the city has increased enormously since the Scheldt was opened to commerce by the treaty of Paris in 1839, and probably no other city of the world has so many foreign establishments, if the various colonial branches in London and Liverpool be excepted.

To the scholar, the artist and the ordinary sightseeing tourist Antwerp is no less interesting than to the merchant. The archæologist must feel an interest in the city which had its beginning on the banks of the Scheldt two centuries before the Trojan war. The historical student must pay his respects to the city so closely associated with Godfrey of Boulogne, Philip II, William of Orange and the great struggle against Spanish domination. The artist must feel a reverence for the city which cradled Rubens, Vandyke, the two Teniers, Jordaens, Frans Floris and Quentin Matsys and still guards their masterpieces as her most precious possessions.

The ordinary tourist will feel or affect an interest in the famous old cathedral, with its 400 foot tower and its great altarpiece by Rubens, "The Descent From the Cross," in the great artist's equally famous "Holy Family," which hangs in the Church of St. Jacques, or in some one or all of the hundred other examples of his finest productions which the city has to show, or perhaps they will grow enthusiastic over the celebrated well cover of delicate iron tracery forged by Quentin Matsys or over his pictures or those of some of the other great lights of the artistic world. They will find much to interest them, too, in the Plantin museum, which includes the famous sixteenth century printing office of Christopher Plantin, where the great Polyglot Bible was printed, besides a priceless collection of books, pictures, manuscripts, etc.

The exposition is located in the southern part of the city in a park covering over 200 acres, fronting on the Scheldt. Its magnitude can best be appreciated from a few figures. The Hall of Industries is 1,750 feet long by 1,400 feet wide. The Electricity building measures 885 by 262 feet and Machinery hall 787 by 262. The art exhibit occupies a building 436 by 233 feet, and Festival hall covers a space 347 feet by 163. The main buildings are all constructed of iron and steel and roofed with zinc and cover collectively 1,080,000 square feet.

One of the most beautiful pieces of architecture on the grounds is the American building, which faces the grand entrance and occupies the most prominent site accorded to any foreign nationality. It measures 240 feet by 150 and is of the modern renaissance architecture. It is approached by a broad marble staircase, and the main court is open to the dome and surrounded by a gallery containing 18 exhibition rooms for the various states. The largest of these, 40 by 82 feet, it devoted to the United States government exhibit.

In an annex to the building is a complete modern American shoe factory, which will be in full operation during the fair. Besides the 26,500 square feet included in the American building and its annex 60,000 square feet of space have been allotted to American exhibitors in the Hall of Industries, 30,000 square feet in the Electricity building and 30,000 square feet in Machinery hall, making a grand total of 146,500 square feet of space devoted to the display of American products. France and Germany have each been accorded only 100,000 square feet, and Great Britain gets but 60,000.

America has also been favored in other respects. A Philadelphia syndicate has secured a concession of 16 acres, which will be devoted to what is called the American plaisance, with the idea of showing by practical illustrations many of the most picturesque phases of American life as it is now and as it has existed in the past. The attractions here will be varied. Pawnee Bill, the leader of the Oklahoma boomers, will have a wild west show, with a company of 125 people, including Indians, cowboys, Mexicans and soldiers, and any number of American wild animals, such as buffaloes, elk, deer, bears, a pack train of burros and a troop of bucking bronchos.

Other features of the plaisance will be an Aztec village, a California ostrich farm, a southern cotton plantation, with negroes at work, and a Florida everglade, with real live alligators. Then in a large corrugated iron auditorium, seating 1,500 people, there will be delivered every day a series of lectures in French on picturesque tours in America, illustrated by stereopticon views of our best scenery, most notable buildings and places of historic interest, as well as some of our principal manufactories, which will undoubtedly give home staying foreigners a fair idea of our scenic attractions, vast resources and material progress. Under the grand stand of the wild west show is to be a typical American bar, conducted on an unusually large scale, a feature that is always very attractive to foreigners.

INTELLECT AND STATURE.

Criminals and Lunatics Have Less Than Average Height and Weight.

The influence of different occupations on adults, of town and country life, of intellectual and physical exercises and of athletics is well brought out by anthropometric inquiry. Measurements extending over 27 successive years have been made at the school of the Society of Friends at York. Friends are largely a commercial and therefore a town dwelling class, and yet there is a slight improvement shown in stature and a very decided improvement shown in weight in the boys attending this school in later years. The beneficial action of the factory acts, of higher wages, cheaper and better food and clothing and improved sanitary surroundings of the working classes in recent years, is brought out by the measurements.

On the other hand, observations show that school life under favorable conditions impedes the physical development of the children, and this is most marked in charity schools. Measurements made at the Duke of York's school at Chelsea show that the children who are the sons of soldiers, and therefore of a class selected for physical fitness, were until recently very inferior in stature and weight to boys of their own class living in their own homes. A similar falling off has prevailed at the Blue Coat school among boys belonging to a higher class of society in consequence of bad sanitary arrangements and probable faults in the feeding and discipline of the inmates. The average stature of boys of different classes of the community varies between the best nurtured boys in our public schools and the worst nurtured class in our industrial schools to the extent of about seven inches in boys of the age of 14 years.

A fact of rather peculiar nature has also been brought to light by anthropometry—namely, that girls from 11 to 14 years are taller and heavier than boys of corresponding ages. The average height of Scotch agricultural laborers (Galloway) is 5 feet 10.5 inches; fellows of the Royal society, 5 feet 9.76 inches; athletes, 5 feet 8.34 inches; lunatics, 5 feet 5.70 inches; criminals, 5 feet 5.60 inches; Herefordshire laborers, 5 feet 5.35 inches and idiots and imbeciles 5 feet 4.84 inches. When compared with the general population, lunatics show a deficiency of nearly two inches in stature and 10 pounds in weight, while criminals are two inches shorter and 18 pounds lighter, besides showing a marked deficiency of physical as well as mental stamina.—Newcastle (England) Chronicle.

A Nest Building Fish.

One of the queerest denizens of the deep, and one which could very properly be called an ichthyological wonder, is the gouramis, the famous nest building fish of the oriental seas. These fish are very plentiful in the waters of Cochin China, Java, Sumatra and Borneo. At the breeding they pair off like birds, and selecting a favorable spot in shallow water among aquatic plants and grasses build large spherical nests of floating weeds and plaster them over with mud. The broad, flat fins used in this last operation are attached to the abdomen and are wholly different from anything in the fin line known to naturalists. The full grown female gouramis is 6 feet long and weighs 110 pounds. The eggs of this queer fish, which are deposited in the mud plastered nest, number from 800 to 1,000.—St. Louis Republic.

A Shrewd Preacher.

A preacher advocating the support of a charitable object prefaced the circulation of the boxes with this address:

"From the great sympathy I have witnessed in your countenances, there is only one thing I am afraid of—that some of you may feel inclined to give too much. Now, it is my duty to inform you that justice should always be a prior virtue to generosity, therefore I wish to have it thoroughly understood that no person will think of putting anything into the box who cannot pay his debts."

The result was an overflowing collection.—London Tit-Bits.

Jack Tar and His Money.

Sailors are almost the only class of workingmen who have considerable sums of money to spend on payday. A jolly tar was buying a watch. The price was $40. Jack bought the watch without any higgling and carelessly threw down a $20 bill. The jeweler pointed out the deficiency.

"Oh!" was the remark. "I didn't know I had that. I'm so much in." And he fished another bill out of a greasy wallet and threw it on the showcase. It was a $50 bill.—Jewelers' Circular.

SAILED THE SEAS 38 YEARS.

One of His Experiences.

For thirty-eight years Capt. Loud followed the sea, most of that time as master of a vessel, and upon retiring from the water was appointed by the Secretary of the United States Treasury to superintend the seal fisheries in Alaska, which position he held five years. He relates one experience as follows:

"For several years I had been troubled with general nervousness and pain in the region of my heart. My greatest affliction was sleeplessness; it was almost impossible at any time to obtain rest and sleep. Having seen Dr. Miles' remedies advertised I began using Nervine. After taking a small quantity the benefit received was so great that I was positively alarmed, thinking the remedy contained opiates which would finally be injurious to me; but on being assured by the druggist that it was perfectly harmless, I continued it together with the Heart Cure. Today I can conscientiously say that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure did more for me than anything I had ever taken. I had been treated by eminent physicians in New York and San Francisco without benefit. I owe my present good health to the judicious use of these most valuable remedies, and heartily recommend them to all afflicted as I was."—Capt. A. P. Loud, Hampden, Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Cure are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, express prepaid. They are free from all opiates and dangerous drugs.

—Sterling Gazette: "Taking pleasant advantages of a couple of days rest between terms, Judge Crabtree dropped down yesterday from Dixon to spend an hour or two with his friend, Walter Stager. He will open court in Rockford on Monday."

—The new and sensational American drama "Juggernaut" is still running at the Schiller. It is a great play, original in subject and striking in its dramatic treatment. An exceptionally interesting feature of the drama is shown in the light thrown upon the inside workings of the notorious Whisky Ring, and from this arise several intensely dramatic situations. The Frohman Company, giving Oscar Wilde's play, "Lady Windermere's Fan," returns to the Schiller theatre April 29th for a two weeks engagement. 'Lady Windermere's Fan" is one of the brightest as it is one of the most amusing comedies of the modern stage.

—That $50,000 color press of the Chicago Inter Ocean, is being utilized in a unique and instructive manner by that great newspaper. It is being used to print a "Little Paper for Little People" with four full pages in colors, and begining with Sunday, April 29th, this paper will contain the first installment of a children's story, written especially for it by a Chicago newspaper man, Sam Clover. A unique feature of this story is that it is to be named by Chicago school children after reading. This, with the "Musical Supplement," a new art feature, makes The Sunday Inter Ocean a most interesting and welcome visitor for every member of the family.

—An unknown man was killed at 1.35 yesterday morning on the railroad at Fulton Junction. He was riding a railroad tricycle on the track and was run down by a freight. The man was instantly killed and so horribly mangled, especially about the head, as to be hardly recognizable. The tricycle was a stolen one. The Sterling Gazette of last evening says: 'Railroad men who have seen the body today believe they can identify it as that of "Big Sullivan," formerly of this city, but who has recently spent most of his time in the county jail at Morrison. He served out his last term, so it is said, and was discharged from that institution only yesterday. It has not yet been learned where he got the tricycle. Sullivan went down from this city about a year ago for burglary. He was a burly brute, and is the fellow who made so much trouble in jail, threatening to kill Sheriff Farley, for which at the term of court before the last he was given an additional ninety days."

—There are many attractive features in the May number of the Demorest Magazine. Gen. Lew Wallace, Gen. James Grant Wilson, Geo. W. Cable, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Prof. H. H. Boyeson and Gertrude Atherton give "Advice to young writers," every word of which, coming from such sources, is as valuable as gold, and the portrait of each is given with advice. The paper on "Russian Home Industries" is superbly illustrated and eminently interesting; "The Transformation of the Ugly Club" is a unique article on modern facial surgery, and the illustrations make the wonderful transformations still more vivid to the reader; all the stories are bright (every girl should read 'Helen's Gift"); you can learn from the illustrations and instructions given in the Home Art Department how easy it is to do "Venetia Bent Iron Work;" the spring fashions are fully described in the Fashion department; and—but space will not permit an enumeration of the many good things in this number, which is a sample of what is given twelve times a year for only two dollars. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th street, New York.

Dr. S. M. Green.

THE TELEGEAPH recently announced briefly that Dr. S. M. Green of Bureau county had been attracted to our beautiful city, and had determined to make it the permanent residence of himself and family. We find in a recent issue of the Bureau County Republican the following, which we copy as an introduction of the doctor to our citizens. At present his home and office is in the Maxwell house on Second street:

For the last twenty-seven years Dr. Green has controlled a very large practice in Bureau, Henry and Whiteside counties, and possibly has had the most lucrative field of labor. The doctor has recently sold out his business interests at Yorktown, and has decided to permanently locate in Dixon, Illinois. The doctor's long residence in Bureau county has made him many friends at home as well as in the adjoining counties where he is favorably known as a successful practitioner. In recent years the doctor has kept pace with the progress of medical science, and has turned his professional attention more especially to his line of specialties, viz: diseases of women and children, and diseases of the chest, nose and throat. We understand that the doctor expects to adopt these branches in his new field of labor. We trust that the people of Dixon will find in Dr. Green a gentlemen well worthy of their confidence and esteem; also his amiable wife who was born and raised in Bureau county and is a christian woman of high womanly attainments—charitable, courteous and very much devoted to all christian and church work. The Republican heartily congratulates the good people of Dixon on their acquisition of as worthy a professional gentleman as Dr. S. M. Green, and earnestly bespeaks for him a share of their patronage, and the very best wishes of a large circle of friends of the doctor and Mrs. Green go with them to their new home in Dixon, Ill.

—"Doctor told mamma the other evening that if I didn't give up wearing fashionable bonnets I'd have neuralgia."

"And so you're going back to the good old comfortable styles?"

"Nonsense, Lena; if people only make up their minds to it neuralgia isn't such an awful thing."

THAT INDUSTRIAL ARMY

On its March to the National Capitol.

The following private letter we take the liberty to place before our readers on account of its general interest and the many suggestions of much thought:

MISSOURI VALLEY, Iowa, April 18, '94.

MY DEAR —— ——

I sent you to-day's Omaha Bee containing accounts of the Coxey-Kelley California contingent of the "Industrial Army." I have visited this army twice, and had interviews with many of its members. They are mostly foreigners of all nations; or of foreign descent, and taken as a whole, are a fair average lot of men, mostly young, from 20 to 45 years of age. Several of them asked me for work, at my own price, saying that they were tired of their march. There are about 1500 of them in this crowd They are orderly and quiet—are guarded by state troops and fed by charity. It is easy to see that they have the active sympathy of a large majority of the people who visit them. On a sheet of muslin about a yard square tacked against one of their cars, was a picture of a Chinaman, with the motto "Melican man must go." Another motto was "Gold at a premium, humanity at a discount;" both lies, for gold is not at a premium, and those who carried the motto were being well fed right there under their banners by the charitable citizens of Omaha and Council Bluffs.

A few years since the President gave utterance to a saying which has passed into a proverb, that "It is a condition and not a theory that now confronts us." That was when a surplus of over $100,000,000 gave our wise men great trouble. We are now confronted with both "theory and condition." A surplus may be bad, but all will agree that a deficit is worse. God grant that congress may rise to the occasion, rise above mere partisan politics and meet the solemn issues that now confront us; upon the plane of statesmanship and business. Senator Hill, of New York, has come nearer doing so, from his standpoint in politics, than any other man now in Congress. When he said the other day "that conditions were different now from those of 1892," he struck the keynote; and when he declared he would act in accordance with changed conditions he simply pointed out to all of us our plain duty.

Yours,
P. CHENEY.

Circuit Court.

Thursday p. m., April 19.—The jury on the Crawford vs. Missman case returned into court with the following verdict, "We, the jury, find the issues for the plaintiff, and we assess plaintiff's damages against the defendant at thirty-three dollars ($33.00)."

Annie Campbell vs. William Wells. Trespass on the case on promises Defendant is called and defaulted and judgment is rendered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant on affidavit of merits for $500.00 and for costs of suit.

Master's reports of proofs and findings were filed and approved in the cases of Moffatt vs Schlagel et. al., Masters vs. Schlagel et. al., and Masters vs. Schlagel et. al.

Friday, April 20—All the the jurors for the first and second weeks were then discharged for the term.

Coffey vs Treffer, petition for lien. Leave given to complainant to amend petition and demurer confessed.

Paid His Bad Debts Last.

An old man whose capacity for liquor is only limited by his credit in the saloons entered a barroom where his score already slated had reached the limit. He tried to induce the bartender to give him just one more drink, but the drink dispenser firmly refused. Looking around he saw at a table a gentleman who was apparently much interested in the conversation. Going up to him he said: "Say, friend, can't you loan me a dime to get a drink? I pledge you my word I'll pay you back." The man handed out a dime, never expecting to get it back. The old fellow hobbled up to the bar, and displaying the dime said, "Now, John, let me have that whisky." The bartender had no sooner placed the drink on the bar than the toper gulped it down. Returning to the man at the table, he handed him the money, saying: "Here's your dime. I told you I'd pay it. I always pay borrowed money before whisky debts." The bartender was dumfounded, but recovered soon enough to hasten the exit of the customer who had bunkoed him.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Premium on Calves.

Howard T., who has lived all his short life in a city, was taken to visit at a "real farm." The child was in ecstasies. Every animal on the place was a delight to him, but his affections especially centered about a Jersey calf.

"I would like to buy it," he said to the owner.

"But what would you give in exchange?" he was asked.

"My baby sister," replied the child, with the utmost gravity. "We have a new baby nearly every year at our house, and we've never had a calf."—New York Tribune.

Mutilated, but Witty.

A soldier who was an inveterate joker and punster, having had his nose, left cheek and a portion of his chin carried away by a shot in the battle of Shiloh, was asked by some of his comrades if they could do anything for him. "Boys," said he, speaking as well as he could in his mangled condition, "I should like a drink of water mighty well, if I only had the face to ask for it."—New York Ledger.

Poor Arthur.

Cholly—Arthur had to stay in bed all day yesterday.

Willie—Was he sick?

"No, pooah boy! But his valet did not come awound to dwess him."—Boston Traveller.

An Old Colonial Horror.

At Freehold, N. J., a negro was once executed in a manner that would have made the torturers of the middle ages blush with envy. An old document in the clerk's office at that place tells the tale: "Therefore the court doth judge that thou, the said Cæsar, shall return to the place from whence thou camest, and from thence to the place of execution, where thy right hand shall be cut off and burned before thy eyes. Then thou shalt be hanged by the neck till thou art dead, dead, dead. Then thy body shall be cut down and burned to ashes in a fire kindled for that purpose, and may the Lord have mercy on thy soul."

The Pilgrims.

Hon. William F. Davis of Plymouth, while delivering an address in Boston, entitled "Who Were the Pilgrims?" said: "The name 'Pilgrim' was suggested by a casual remark of Governor William Bradford in his history, when, in speaking of the sorrow felt by the Plymouth colony at leaving Leyden he said, 'But they knew they were pilgrims and looked not on such things.' It was used for the first time by Judge John Davis in his ode, 'Sons of Renowned Sires,' written for the celebration of the landing in 1792."—Philadelphia Record.
